New Delhi: Diljit Dosanjh-starrer Shadaa has emerged as a dark horse for the Punjabi film industry. On the last count, the romantic comedy directed by Jagdeep Sidhu earned $25.75 crore across the country, emerging as the second-highest net grosser ever for films made in the language after the $33.50 crore net earnings of Carry On Jatta 2, which is the highest ever for a Punjabi film. Shadaa makes history. Becoming the first Punjabi film to break the $3 net collection mark on a Saturday. Atul Mohan, editor of the trade magazine Complete Cinema had tweeted about the film. During the first two weeks of release, Mohan reported, the film recorded more than 60% average occupancy. According to the trade website Box Office India, the two-week net box office numbers of Carry On Jatta 2 when they were released in 2018 were $26.50 net, as the older film had collected 10 quince nets plus in week two, which was an open week before the release of Salman Khan's Race 3 for Eid. Shadaa is now looking to cross $30 and become the second film in the language to do so. The film co-starring Neeru Bajwa has also scored well overseas with earnings of about $14.50 crore, which takes the worldwide number to nearly $45, making it the second Punjabi film to cross $50 worldwide. As far as overseas collections go, Shadaa has become the ninth Punjabi film to cross $2 million. The top Punjabi film abroad is the 2014 animation film Chaar Sahibzaade with nearly $3.6 million, a tough number to break. According to the Ficci-EY media and entertainment industry report 2019, the Punjabi film industry has witnessed an impressive upheaval. About 50 Punjabi films were released in 2018 against 40 in 2017. 2018 has emerged as one of the most interesting years for Punjabi cinema in terms of box office figures given that Punjabi films not only gave stiff competition to Hindi Films in Punjab, but also made a dent in the theatrical collections of many Hindi films in the overseas market. The collection of Punjabi films in 2018 was approximately 3.3 billion kroner. Topics 1 win & 3 nominations.
